When I received the attached photograph from [redacted] [redacted] thought it a singularly good candid shot of my congenial luncheon companions at the Annual Meeting of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce on April 28th. I decided I should like to have it autographed by each of those present and am forwarding it to you in the hope that you will be kind enough to inscribe it and return it to me. I should, of course, be very happy to reciprocate if you care to send me your copy of the photograph.

I want to take this occasion to tell you what a real pleasure it was meeting you and to offer my congratulations on your most interesting luncheon talk.

Sincerely,

(signed)

Allen W. Dulles
